RECAP: POOL PARTY

It might have been hot on July 12 but everyone having fun at the 40s/50s Aloha Pool Party felt pretty cool – whether in or just near the pool. We found some good pool basketball players, great hula hoop dancers, but discovered that no matter how good some of our golfers are on land that no one could chip successfully into the pool hole. Numerous attendance gifts were given out as well as prizes for our contest winners. It was exciting to have several new members join us and hope they will be joining us for future events. Many, many thanks go to Kay Moore for her boundless energy, meticulous attention to detail, and creativity. Thanks goes to John Moore for helping to set up, making the CD for our background music, getting the DVD for our island visual, as well as going with Kay all over Phoenix to get things for the party!! Also thanks go to Les and JoAnne Diveley and Roxy and Mike Banta and Gloria and Larry Richardson for their ideas, help and support. Finally thanks to everyone for sharing their yummy side dishes and to Gayle King for his famous, St. Louis-style BBQ pulled pork.
